Dear Valued Customer,

WARM & HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM COMFORTGUARD HOME SOLUTIONS

We hope you continue to enjoy your energy-saving products provided by Comfortguard. In anticipation of continued growth in 2011, we're excited to announce our new

HOME ENERGY PARTY PROGRAM

Comfortguard is seeking satisfied customers of our attic insulation to act as hosts for this new program. As a Home Energy Party Host, you invite friends, neighbors and relatives to a 45 -minute presentation. In return for offering your home for our party, you will receive discounts on new products, and a commission on any business that is a result of the party! And to top it off, Comfortguard will provide all food and beverages!

To meet the growing demand for energy conservation, Comfortguard now offers the following array of American-made products and services:

- New Reflective Insulation Applications
- SunRise Solar Attic Fans
- GreenSwitch Electricity Management Systems
- In-Home Energy Audits

“I recently hosted a Energy Home Party, the easiest $800 I ever made, plus, my neighbors have been thrilled with the products they purchased...a win-win!”

Patty B., Salisbury, MD

You can cash in on this great opportunity, as well! Host a party and reap the rewards. Help us spread the word and share with your friends the savings of Comfortguard. They'll thank you and so will we.

Call today to schedule a meeting with one of our party specialists, to discuss your participation in the exciting new program.
